

2017 Education Legislation Explained

Public Chapter 99 - This new law changes the physical activity requirements for students. It removes the current non-structured physical activity requirements. Elementary school students must now receive one hundred thirty (130) minutes of physical activity per full school week. Middle and high school students must receive a minimum of ninety (90) minutes of physical activity per full school week. Additionally, elementary school students must receive at least one fifteen-minute (15) period of physical activity per day. Finally, the new physical activity requirements may work in conjunction with the school's physical education program.